

RAINO Series

Porcelain / Technical

The collection offers a versatile range of full-body porcelain tiles designed for high-performance and technical applications. Available in three main styles — Raino, Plain, and Speckle — the collection includes various colour options, modular formats, and complementary cove pieces for seamless integration. These tiles meet safety requirements from everyday spaces to heavy-duty industrial use. The collection allows flexible combinations across colours, sizes, and slip ratings, making it ideal for both functional and aesthetic design needs.
